BOGOTA FOR MEYER

SUBJ: Mitrione/Fly Meetings - Talking Points for Conversation With Pomin

REF: (a) Montevideo 1635; (b) State 123251

Department concurs raising points one through six ref (a). Re point seven, we want to make clear that we do not rpt not want to use possible eventual release of President's message as club over GOU head. When we warned against assurances that text might not be released later, we were guarding against two basic contingencies: first, a release as result of intensified public, Congressional, and media pressure about measures USG taking; and second, a tragic outcome which would oblige us to make public the record of our actions. Because these contingencies are all too readily foreseeable, we did not want to mislead the GOU into believing we were giving some kind of permanent commitment. You may state that, should either
